Safety Center wants you to tell Joey

Soldiers don't have to learn lessons the hard way through accidents. They can also learn from close calls, near misses and minor mistakes, both their own and those of others. This is an opportunity for Soldiers to share experiences with each other. They can be long or short, recent or from the past. Soldiers can share their lessons learned with Joey, as well as all of the Army. Send their stories to the U.S. Army Safety Center, ATTN: "Joey" Bldg 4905, 5th Ave., Fort Rucker, Ala. 36362-5363 or fax DSN 558-3003, (334)-255-3003, ATTN: "Joey". You can also e-mail:

New Web site outlines in-state tuition eligibility

The Army Continuing Education System now hosts the In-State Tuition Web site.

"The site provides information on state policies and laws regarding in-state tuition eligibility requirements for military personnel and their families," said Mike Tevnan, education specialist at the U.S. Army Human Resources Command.

The Army contacted each state asking them to consider their residency requirements for in-state tuition in light of the Army's goals for common policies. The desired outcome, Tevnan said, is eligibility for in-state tuition rates under each of the following conditions: in-state tuition for Soldiers and family members within the state of legal residence; immediate in-state tuition for Soldiers and family members in the state of assignment; and continuity of in-state tuition once established.

Users of the new Web site will be able to tell whether a particular state meets all three criteria by simply clicking on "Summary by State." A map will then pop onto the screen and users can click on the state of interest.

In addition, a news section on the home page discusses any new developments or updates related to in-state tuition, and the references section will provide links to military education Web sites, scholarship Web sites and other important information that may be of further assistance.

Currently, 43 states have policy or legislation that meets two of the three goals and 19 of which meet all three criteria of the model policy, Tevnan said.

The In-State Tuition Web site can be accessed by logging onto the ACES Web site: <http://www.armyeducation.army.mil/> and follow the link shortcut to State Policies or Residency Requirements.

Corporal Recruiters wanted

The U.S. Army Human Resources Command is still looking for volunteers for the Corporal Recruiting Program.

The program began in 1999 on a trial basis and since has allowed privates first class and specialists to do one-year Recruiting tours to tell the Army story.

The volunteer Corporal Recruiting Program is open to interested privates first class and specialists who meet Recruiter qualifications as outlined in Army Regulation 601-1. The qualification criteria can be accessed via the Internet at http://www.usapa.army.mil/series_range_pubs.asp?range=601. Soldiers must be single and have at least 24 months time remaining in service upon signing in at their Recruiting unit.

The U.S. Army Human Resources Command will make the final Corporal Recruiter selections. Once selected, applicants will be scheduled for a six-week recruiting course at Fort Jackson, S.C.

Corporal Recruiters are assigned to Recruiting areas near their hometowns. Other incentives include 38 promotions points for completing the Recruiting course, $450 a month in special-duty pay and the opportunity to select their next overseas assignment or assignment to any U.S.-based installation with a corps or division.

Those interested in applying should contact their Retention NCO or call Sgt. 1st Class Mark Johnson at DSN 221-7902 or commercial (703) 325-7902 at HRC Alexandria, Va.

NCOJ needs photos

The NCO Journal is launching a new feature, "Photo Journal," a photo gallery, capturing what NCOs around the Army are doing. Since "Photo Journal" will be a regular feature in each issue of the magazine, we're putting out the call to all photographers. Whether you consider yourself an amateur or a professional, we encourage you to send us your photos. The only guidelines for photo entries is that the photo must demonstrate an NCO or NCOs doing their duties, be it accomplishing a mission, training or taking care of Soldiers. We will print the best entries in each issue. The winning photographers will receive a certificate acknowledging their photographic excellence. Please remember to send caption information and the photographer's name, rank and unit so we can give the photographer credit. Our e-mail and mailing addresses are both listed on the inside cover the magazine.
